ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR OFFICE.

W. H. DENHAM HOCKER
As a candidate for Circuit Court, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

To the Voters of the Circuit Court.
I am a candidate for the Circuit Court, and I submit my claims subject to the action of the Democratic party. Should I be elected, I will make a vigorous effort to cure my election. Respectfully, G. B. LAWRENCE.

GOVERNOR BROWN has done the proper thing in offering a reward of $100 for the capture of Ben Logan, Jr., accused of shooting and killing Thomas. This ought to put enough men on his trail to bring him to justice.

The roads of this country are now almost impassable, and it is being made, so far as anybody knows, by any of our sapient legislators, to improve the antiquated system by which they are supposed to be kept in condition.

ROBERT Q. MILLS, the talented Texan, who by fair means or foul was defeated for the Speakership of the House by Mr. Cripps, has been elected to the Senate by the Legislature of Texas. This is well and it is hoped this gallant man may meet better treatment there than among a membership who failed to recognize and honor him as he deserved.

Down in Simpson county they made a negro Secretary of their Republican Convention. Here in Ohio, after voting the Republican ticket twenty-five years, the negro is not good enough to be appointed delegate to the State Convention even a list of forty negroes, the only business of our Ohio negro is to vote, and then come home and brag.

Two injury inflicted by barb wire fences upon the stock of this country would seem amount to enough to put decent fences around every field in cultivation. The accident of this injury is only limited by the amount of such barbarous fencing inflicted upon the public by military and police. The slat and wire fence is the best made in this country and any one fence is better than the crude barb wire. Let it be discarded by every farmer who values the well-being of his or his neighbor's stock.

With slack-water navigation to Hartford, the greatest possible inconvenience exists for building the proposed railroad to Portland. Why not build the road, use it to convey timber to Hartford, and then profitably be worked into all kinds of implements and find a cheap exit by boat to a ready market.

Mr. ALVIN L. SMITH, chief executive of Mr. John F. Egan's campaign on distribution, etc., etc., as appears that his salary while serving his country at Ovensboro and running the politics of Ohio county, is four dollars a day, not five, as the types made in last week. It is indeed too bad that a gentleman engaged in the noble work of watching a barrel of whisky at Ovensboro and running a whisky Convention in Hartford should get but four dollars per day. We move an amendment.

"The advertising done by the Herald is the most striking and attractive I ever saw," remarked an extensive reader of the newspaper the other day. He said he and his family often visited the stores to see the articles they saw mentioned in the Herald. This is true of many other good citizens, and they may be assured that those firms whose names appear in our advertising columns are the ones who are keeping up with the times and who want trade and are willing to pay to get it. Read the Herald's advertising columns and profit by what you learn there.

Within the last month there has been more flagrant violation of law in Ohio county than for years before in the same length of time. Thievery and bloodshed have again filled up our jail, and one officer upon the dangerous wound of an assault by a man whom he was attempting to arrest. Can it be that the criminal classes have been led by the city editor concerning the officers of this county, to believe that they can really violate law and not be punished? If so, they may take notice now that the strong arm of the civil law is still sufficient to protect our citizens. There is a jury of two in Ohio county ready to administer a dose or two of that great specific for the cure of crime—a yard of rope. No more is needed for this purpose, but it will be used by due execution of the statute in such cases made and provided.

CURRENT EVENTS AT THE CAPITAL.

Some Salary Legislation—New District, Judicial and Senatorial—Felix Poole Pardoned and G. W. Chapman Again a Free Man.

GOOD GOVERNOR BROWN'S
Special Correspondence of the Herald.
FRANKFORD, Ky., March 29, 1902.
The Meigs tobacco bill passed the House yesterday and now waits the signature of the Governor. It was passed in the face of the opposition which it has met in the Senate. The bill is a measure to allow the privilege of building a warehouse on tobacco.

The Governor's pardon of Felix Poole calls to mind the pardons of the State which have been made at various times since Mr. Poole was indicted charged with rape committed in 1897. The pardon of the Governor of the defense was that it was a persecution waged against him by the people who, for reasons of their own, wanted to rid of him. The details as related by the prosecution were very revealing and the pardon seemed a little like a reward for the defense was that it was a persecution waged against him by the people who, for reasons of their own, wanted to rid of him.

It is an article last week relative to the enforcement of law, our contemporary, the Republican, struck a chord in which the hearts of every law-abiding citizen will respond. The law as it stands is right and should claim the unquestioning obedience of every citizen. The law is strong and the provisions afforded for its enforcement are ample and adequate. No man law is demanded to secure the law's protection in Ohio county, but a reasonable appeal to the common sense of every citizen and the force of the irresistible logic of right living, will secure the maximum of obedience and respect for law on the part of every inhabitant of this country.

With a firm belief in the final triumph of the right, we join in the hope that those who have transgressed, will do so no more, and that in his individual life, he will respect alike the behests of his countrymen, the laws of man and the will of Judge to whom he must at last account.

CROWLEY, KY.
March 29, 1902.—Having seen nothing from this place for some time, I will try to send you a few lines.

Health of this community is very good. Mrs. Lillian Shultz, better known as Mrs. Fanning, who has been lingering for some time with a complication of diseases, is still very low, but by good nursing will probably recover.

The citizens of our town are encouraged by the prospect of the Henderson State Line, which seems to be a certain thing. The Henderson State Line is a line of railroads which will connect the State of Ohio with the State of Kentucky.

The wedding bells have been ringing in our town for some time. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith were married at the residence of Mr. J. H. Smith on Sunday, March 24th. The wedding party was very large and the celebration was very successful.

Mr. J. H. Smith, chief executive of Mr. John F. Egan's campaign on distribution, etc., etc., as appears that his salary while serving his country at Ovensboro and running the politics of Ohio county, is four dollars a day, not five, as the types made in last week. ## COME TO BEAVER DAM!

On Saturday, April 2, 1892

—WE WILL HAVE OUR—
SPRING OPENING!

At which time we will exhibit the best selected and direct display of GENERAL MERCHANDISE that we have ever shown. Having now the advantage of this central location, we feel assured that we can offer to the people of this great river country advantages even superior to what we have done in the past.

OUR TALKING MAN,
Being a very modest man, does not propose to say that we are the "finest" merchants in the world, but he instructs us to say in this announcement that we are giving to this business all the time, money and brain at our command, and if these avail anything in these jostling retail times, the people shall have the advantage of it all. There is no mistake about the proposition, it takes all these to make this.

There Was No Hope
In a few days the March 1st issue of the "Herald" will be sent to you. It is a very interesting and useful paper, and it is a very interesting and useful paper.
